U-2 Pilot Facing Another Ordeal: Meeting Press

Washington, Feb. 28 (News Bureau).—U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers is expected to submit to a press conference after he has first been quizzed by at least one Congressional committee, it was disclosed today.

Government officials said the Powers story first will be told by Central Intelligence Agency Director John McCone to four Congressional committees behind closed doors next week. The committees are Foreign Relations and Armed Services in the Senate and Foreign Affairs and Armed Services in the House.

Officials said the committees which hear McCone will have first choice if they want to quiz Powers in person. A House Foreign Affairs Committee member said Powers definitely would be questioned.
